

DISTRIBUTIONAToM is added to Bank of China's distributor panel

All Types of Mortgages has become the latest recruit to Bank of China's distributor panel.

AToM is now offering Bank of China's residential, buy-to-let and commercial offerings, with rates starting from 2.8%, 3.88% and 4% respectively.

Dale Jannels, sales and marketing director at AToM, says: "We are delighted to have been appointed to Bank of China's approved distributor panel and look forward to offering its intermediary products to our network partners.

"The addition of another lender to our panel demonstrates that lenders still want to lend. Bank of China has some terrific product offerings and we look forward to working with it."
